New Age and Esoteric Milieus in the Soviet Period and Afterwards

This illustrated book, which launches the new series New Religious Milieus and Spiritualities in Eastern Europe, offers a collection of expert essays, testimonies and memoirs from the esoteric underground of the late Soviet Union and the first decade of post-Soviet history. Annotated by an international network of renowned specialists in history, religious studies, cultural studies and anthropology, the book is organized around the themes of spiritual figures, communities and their visions, as well as contemporary forms of spiritual transmission and the extensive transnational connections of Soviet and post-Soviet esotericists with Western New Agers.

Trends and Experiences

This volume examines religiosity on university campuses in Sub-Saharan Africa. Focusing on both individuals and organized groups, the contributions open a window onto how religion becomes a factor, affects social interactions, is experienced and mobilized by various actors. It brings together case studies from various disciplinary backgrounds (anthropology, sociology, history, religious studies) and theoretical orientations to illustrate the significance of religiosity in recent developments on university campuses. It pays a particular attention to religion-informed activism and contributes a fresh analysis of processes that are shaping both the experience of being student and the university campus as a moral space. Finally, it sheds light onto the ways in which the campus becomes a site of a reformulation of both religiosity and sociality.
