Call for Symposia

From 14 to 18 September 2009 the GfÖ annual conference will take place at the University of Bayreuth.

In the tradition of GfÖ conferences, there will be different symposia covering the wide range of recent ecological research.

You are invited to send your suggestions until 15 January 2009 to gfoe2009@bayceer.uni-bayreuth.de. In addition to your suggested title, please provide with a half page abstract and a list of potential contributors.

In cooperation with the speaker of the GfÖ-Specialist Groups the local organizing committee will decide on the final selection.

We are looking forward to your suggestions.
